NCCI Signs the Cultural Compact

The Newman Chamber of Commerce and Industry (NCCI) is one of many organisations who have recently signed the This is Our Dream Cultural Compact.

NCCI business development manager Kahu Raharuhi said it was an important step in acknowledging Niyaparli and Martu people and raising cultural awareness.

"I believe that we need to work together by acknowledging the people of this land," she said.

"I am Indigenous to New Zealand and I feel this type of recognition is in line with respect, cultural awareness and an opportunity to move forward in the right way."

Kahu said she would encourage all other Newman businesses to sign the Cultural Compact because it is about standing with Indigenous people and collaborating for a better future.

"The Newman Chamber of Commerce and Industry will show its commitment as signatories to the Cultural Compact by opening every meeting and Chamber event with the Acknowledgement to Country that the Martu and Niyaparli people have endorsed.

Reconciliation Week 2022 27th May - 3rd June

BE BRAVE. MAKE CHANGE.
NATIONAL RECONCILIATION WEEK 2022

We acknowledge the Nyiyaparli Traditional Owners of the Country on which Newman stands and the Martu People as the Custodians of Jigalong which sits in Nyiyaparli Country. We respect and recognise their leaders, past, present and emerging, and we are grateful for the privilege of living and working on this Country.

On Saturday the 28th September we were lucky enough to attend the 5th Annual Reconciliation Ball held at the East Pilbara Arts Centre. The evening hosted by the Shire of East Pilbara & BHP was the perfect way to kick off Reconciliation Week 2022.

We heard from MC Kylie Bracknell & guest speaker Hon. Rosetta Sahanna, both sharing their heritage, life experiences and inspiring us with their stories.

To top off the evening we danced & celebrated with music by the incredible pop duo The Merindas - An indigenous Australian pop duo, comprising Candice Lorrae and Kristel Kickett and of course Newmans very own DJ Viv.

A massive thank you to everyone involved in such an integral event for our community and we look forward to it for many years to come.
